Support when you need it most

Tax Investigation Service

At Hillier Hopkins we offer our clients a Tax Investigation Service to protect you from the professional costs incurred if HMRC were to open an investigation into your personal or business affairs.

Even if there is no additional tax to pay, investigations and enquiries can cost thousands and last for many months.

Our Tax Investigation Service, in partnership with Croner Taxwise includes:

- Representation from us in the event of an HMRC investigation.
- £100,000 fees indemnity on this insurance backed service with no excess.
- Peace of mind that we will deal with HMRC on your behalf, limiting the concern and stress of spiralling additional fees.

If you are in business, our service includes the furlough support package:

- Representation from us in the event of any HMRC enquiries relating to claims made via the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme.
- Access to HR Advice for any HR issues within your business, this extends to the specialist furlough team who can advise on all HR issues relating to furlough.
- Health & Safety and Legal telephone advice line.
